Star Clothiers.

THERE is not an atom of truth in the statement that the people like to get humbugged. The very man to whom the saying is credited made his success upon entirely different lines by giving "the best show on earth." What the people seek in merchandise is the best value obtainable for their money. They get it here and that's the secret of our success.

Fall Suits For Men and Boys!

"SAME OLD STORY" about the best goods and lowest prices. Aren't you tired of clothing talk of this nature? Much bright wit is being expended these days to cheapen the grades of work and quality in clothing and still keep up appearances. We still make a bid for your patronage on quality; it's even more important to you than style, but both quality and style are at the top notch in

Our Accurately Fitting Clothing. Our Assortment in Fine Fabrics and Handsomely Tailored Suits is simply Matchless.

A SERIOUS AFFRAY

On the State Fair Grounds Yesterday Afternoon.

PITCHER VICKERY IS BADLY HURT.

Struck on the Left Side of the Head With a Hatchet in the Hands of A. J. Schultze, the Photographer—A Quarrel About a Tin-Type Started the Trouble—Both Under Arrest.

Yesterday afternoon a serious affair occurred in the tintype tent of A. J. Schultze, on the State Fair grounds, concerning which two widely different stories are told, but as the result T. G. Vickery, the well known pitcher of the Warren base ball club, has a very sore head, having been struck with a hatchet by Mr. Schultze, and a severe wound inflicted. The trouble started in connection with a number of tintypes which had been made for the party with which Vickery, Kelly, the umpire, and a number of other ballplayers and friends were. They went into the tent and ordered their pictures taken. When the dozen were finished about eight of them were taken and paid for. Several of the members of the party refused to take the pictures, declaring they were very poor. Among these was Vickery. Kelly had ordered the pictures, and Schultze announced that he would hold him responsible for the pay.

To this Vickery objected, and he told Kelly not to pay a cent. Just at this point the accounts began to differ. Schultze says Vickery and another man knocked him down and were choking and striking him, when he grasped a hatchet to defend himself, and struck at the nearest man.

Vickery says he merely pushed Schultze aside gently and told him to let Kelly pass, when he was struck. He "saw the hatchet and stars of all shapes and colors," and was congratulating himself that he had been struck with the blunt end, when he put his hand to his head, and when he took it down it was covered with blood. Just as he got outside the tent he fell to the ground unconscious.

The cut is a nasty one. His deer hat is cut as if with a sharp knife, and the edge of the hatchet cut into the bone of his skull. Dr. Taylor dressed the wound. Both were arrested, Schultze by Lieut. Ingram and Vickery by Officer Michaels, and both gave security for their appearance at this morning's police court, when a large number of witnesses will tell what they know about the case.

A GRAND DISPLAY

Of Pain's Fireworks Was Seen Last Night at Mozart Park.

The display of Pain's fireworks last evening at Mozart park, the South Side hill-top resort, was the finest pyrotechnic exhibition ever seen in this city and the several thousands of people who witnessed the display were loud in their praise. The set pieces were particularly fine. The weather could not have been better; the air was balmy and the moon cast a radiance of pleasing hue on the scene on the hillside where the display took place. The crowd was something immense and hundreds fought at the foot of the incline in order to see the display from beginning to end.

Sent to Jail for Stealing.

Phoebe Wiley, who had worked with an inland family as a domestic, was arrested by Lieut. Ingram yesterday on a warrant issued by Squire Fitzpatrick, charging her with stealing a dress and a wrap, belonging to Miss Emma Oker, who boarded with the family. When brought into court she had the dress on, but she still denied her guilt. She was sent to jail in default of bail for her appearance this morning at 9 o'clock for a preliminary hearing. The clothing was stolen while Miss Oker was absent on a visit to friends in Pennsylvania.

His Left Arm Broken.

"Flicker" Coss, one of Martin's Ferry's well known characters, met with a very painful accident last evening. While in a very intoxicated condition he tried to board a Terminal engine on the crossing at Seabright's lane. He was struck on the left arm, breaking it close to the shoulder. Dr. Shuttleworth reduced the fracture.

Bobby Gaylor in a New Role.

A great deal of interest is manifested in the local presentation of the comedy drama, "In a Big City," which Robert Gaylor will present to-night at the Opera House. Robert Gaylor is well known in this city, and any extended mention would be superfluous. He has always appeared here in farce-comedy, and no doubt his change to melo-drama will attract all his old admirers and many new ones. "In a Big City" is said to be an ideal drama, wherein comedy and pathos are judiciously intermingled, laughter and tears follow in quick succession, and rich and appropriate scenery add interest to the entire performance. Among the company assisting Mr. Gaylor may be mentioned that popular German dialect comedian, Al H. Wilson, who did excellent work in Augustus Pitou's production of "Struck Oil," and Canary & Lederer's extravaganza, "The Twenty Century Girl," last season.

"A Money Order" Coming!

Julia Walters, the clever tramp impersonator, will be seen at the Grand the last three days of Fair week, commencing Thursday evening, in his new play, "A Money Order," which is described as a beautiful up-to-date comedy drama with its scenes laid in Ohio, and dealing with capital, labor and society as we see it to-day. The piece is said to display very fully the ingenuity of the author, who also made room for an elaborate display of scenic effects.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. E. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequaled by any other.

MR. A. B. CHAMPION DEAD.

A Well Known and Popular Director of the Wheeling Railway Passes Away in London.

All the cars of the Wheeling electric railway system were draped in mourning yesterday on account of the death of A. B. Champion, a Cincinnati attorney, a director of the Wheeling Railway Company, and a member of the syndicate which bought and reorganized the two street railway systems here. Mr. Champion was well known and well liked in Wheeling, where he had been a frequent visitor. In a notice of his death the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Mr. Champion had been ill for some months. His illness was the result of overwork. He was interested in the street railroads of Wheeling, W. Va., and would work in this city all day, ride in a sleeper to Wheeling during the night, work in that city all day and ride in a sleeping car back to Cincinnati the next night.

"This he kept up for some time, until his loss of sleep and overtaxing of nature's resources was too great a strain, and he fell ill. That illness resulted in typhoid fever, and from it he never fully recovered. When he was well enough, as he thought, to return to his professional duties he did so, and that was fatal, for he had a relapse, and other complications of diseases set in. It was finally decided that a sea voyage was the best thing for him and he took it. Before he arrived on the other side of the Atlantic he was weak and nervous and not as well as when he started. A trip was taken to the Harz mountains, but the weather was not suitable there, and his physician advised that he go to the Isle of Wight. While in the mountains Mrs. Champion became alarmed, telegraphed to this country, and Mr. Muir wired back to Thomas Darby, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, who was in England, to go to Mr. Champion. He did so, and accompanied his old friend and counselor to London. He got no further than London, when the bronchial asthma, which had developed, proved fatal."

Mr. Champion was an enthusiast in the cause of the Cincinnati House of Refuge, a director of the centennial exposition there in '88, an organizer of the Unity Club, a lawyer of high standing and a useful citizen. He was an old base ball enthusiast, and was president of the old Red Stockings. He was born at Columbus on February 9, 1842. He was married to Miss Lizzie S. Taylor, at Newcast, Ohio, in 1870. Three children survive that union. He read law with Francis Collins at Columbus, and was admitted to the bar in 1863. The next year he began the practice of his profession in Cincinnati. He never held a political office, but ran for Prosecuting Attorney in 1870, and while defeated, led his ticket by 5,000 votes. Just after the war he was a clerk in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio company at Benwood, when cars were transferred on barges across the river.

WHEELING RIGHT IN IT

When the New Coal Road is Built to Connellsville—Bridge Approved.

Representatives of the Pittsburgh, Monongahela & Wheeling railroad and Captain John F. Dravo, of the coal exchange, met in Major Hoxie's office yesterday to go over the plans for the new Monongahela railroad bridge at Monongahela City, says Tuesday's Pittsburgh Post. As the rivermen had given their assent to the building of the bridge from the plans some time ago, there was no opposition, and Major Hoxie at once approved them, and will forward them to the war department for the approval of the secretary of war. This will be merely a matter of form, since there will be no opposition there.

The bridge will be built by the new Pittsburgh, Monongahela & Wheeling railroad in order to give it access to Pittsburgh. The road will open up many thousands of acres of rich coal lands to the Ohio river, and allow the shipment of coal by rail to Wheeling almost as cheaply as it can be brought to the Pittsburgh harbor. It will obviate the payment of tolls on the coal, as well as save towing over 100 miles of treacherous and dangerous river, and will allow of shipments for about two months more in the year than can be had from Pittsburgh. All this makes it look a little dark for the future of Pittsburgh's river coal trade, and some of the leading rivermen are of the opinion that Wheeling will become the principal landing point for coal-carrying river craft. The proposed route of the new railroad will pass by the pits of three of the principal river mines above Monongahela City, and it may be that they will ship by rail to Wheeling in preference to loading in boats at the dipple and paying the tolls to Pittsburgh.
